LUCAN – Namaste

GOLDEN CANDLES

music: Hans Elmers

lyrics: Lucia Hebers

Golden candles lead the way to marble statues who'll save the day Wooden benches, for you to kneel So this is how you want to feel

Is there treason in this lie?
Can I look him in the eye?

True confessions of guilt and fear False obsessions, the end is near Harsh commands you cannot follow makes your heart cry out in sorrow

And the blood pours out of his thigh and a sad look in his eyes This is what you made of it
This is it, you made it up

Hear the bells, come sinners come Words of doom will make you numb On painted windows from the past is just an image that won't last

Jesus, hero, where's your wisdom and all you taught us about freedom I witness twice your execution Ashamed I am for this institution

I AM FREE

music: Hans Elmers

lyrics: Lucia Hebers

Can you see me smiling, I made a brand new start Do you hear me sing this song for you, straight from the heart
It wasn't very easy, it took a lot of faith
But here I am, I took the chance, the power to create

I am free and I feel that I can breathe again I am free now I'm living up to who I am I am free and I see the world through the eyes of a child
I am free and you know that darkness is just a lack of light
I am free

I didn't wait for heaven to make my dreams come true I found the crystals on my way and knew just what to do

Life is like a carousel with ever changing scenes But we're the master at the wheel, we can make it by all means It may not be very easy, it takes a lot of faith
But here I am, I took the chance, the power to create

MY LIFE ON PLANET EARTH

music: Hans Elmers

lyrics: Lucia Hebers

White eagle gliding through a clear blue sky Big snowy mountains that reach oh so high Black and white cows in the morning dew Ain't that an amazing view

Twenty-four ducks sleeping on a riverbank Love coming to me like a boomerang Flowers that bloom in the sun of June You whistling my favourite tune

Stand still for a moment and let the time pass I watch it all in silence as through a looking glass You know, I am just an alien by birth and this is my life on planet Earth

All these words that I hear you people say while you run in circles every day
The wind, the rain, the hail and the storm
The moon to remind me of home

VENUS URANUS

music: Hans Elmers

lyrics: Lucia Hebers

The morning star brings a change of heart for all the people that are living Let's take a step out of the night and look inside at what we're given

The morning star brings a change of heart
It's a chance to see a true meaning that in fact we only can succeed Love is the treasure we are keeping

Venus, Uranus are up in the air Beautiful stars light the dawn of a new age
In the book of history we write a new page

The morning star brings a change of heart
In the light we can keep on building Let's all unite for a world at peace
The revolution is just beginning

NAMASTE

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

Tell me your story show me your heart I know you are hurting wounds of the past Leave me alone, you say
I can't take it no more
The shadows keep coming up
You cry, but you don't know why

All I do is speak to myself when I ask your name
Namaste

Remember the old days when it all took place We are in this together there's no disgrace Just go away, you say
Recognize, look in my eyes
You cry, but you don't know why

How could you ever know you agreed to forget I see beyond your tears the reason why we've met I offer you my hand, you see we are one of a kind Love binds us together We cry, but we do know why

YOU CAN DO ANYTHING

*music: Hans Elmers

You can do anything
just make a choice and say the words
You can do anything
your freedom is that of a king

You can do anything
just love your soul and set a goal
go fly away while you sing

Oh, remember who you are You shine like a star You're a god, reach for the sky
You shall never die

You can do anything
just listen here and loose your fear
You can do anything
ease your pain, away the sting

You can do anything
we all can too you know it's true
You can do anything
isn't that astonishing

I SAIL THE OCEAN

*music: Hans Elmers

I sail the ocean
and I ride the waves Ship of destiny at steady pace

I sail the ocean
Life is a mystery all through my days

Open my eyes and let me see the splendour of my life I was so blind, you let me see the wonders in my mind

I shine my light, so I can see where truth is in the night I look in my heart, yes I can see Living is just an art

SAFE HAVEN

*music: Hans Elmers

Come to me and stop your fight I will see you through the night Consider me a friend-to-be Do you dare to trust in me

I'm a safe haven
for you who sails the endless seas
come steer your weary ship for me
I'm a safe haven
I'm a safe haven for you

Drop your anchor in my harbour Take a few steps on my shore
No deep waters in my quarters Only put your faith in me

At the early break of day You will go on on your own way again and when you do, remember me I'll be glad to set you free

CAN I FORGIVE MYSELF

*music: Hans Elmers

I stole a dime, it wasn't mine
I robbed a friend
can I forgive myself

I told a lie when it came by I nailed a friend
can I forgive myself

Pain in my heart, pain in my back Pain in my head, I'm a living wreck do you still love me, my friend

Day after day I kicked you away I hurt a friend
can I forgive myself

I ran too fast when you breathed your last I forgot a friend
can I forgive myself
