

THE BIRD AND THE TREE

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

Furry shelter, but cannot stay The gate shines light and bright stone eyes, don't look away I will go and meet the bird

Foreign forest, lead my feet Bird's sitting high above me in a tree, distance's real Tell me what you see

Judge me as I am
Speak, silence is now
Colours changing
Eyes stay stone
Yet amused by my sheer soul

Bird won't sing, so shall not stay
The sun will mark my path I hear my name, touch tree and feel rest in my heart at last

Judge me as I am
Speak, silence is now
Soul's expanding
A gift, my home
Moved by my sheer soul

All will be well, unbounded tree
The promise I believe your love still flows no pain no more,
I cry with you, my friend

Judge me as I am
Speak, silence is now
Black bird's watching
Eyes stay stone
Amused by my sheer soul

I WON'T TOUCH YOU

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Lucia Hebers*

Falling in love though I know it's in vain I balance between sweet love and foul pain Sting in my heart, your face is so dear Ignorance is bliss, I won't be insincere

Don't be afraid, I won't touch you Though my heart is burning with fire and my soul is screaming for desire please keep close, I won't touch you my love

Fantasy feeds my longing even more but reality spoils what I was hoping for Sting in my heart give me a sign Heaving a sigh, you'll never be mine

THE VOYAGE

*music: Hans Elmers

Knowing and believing
We are on a quest for life Purpose and direction Travelling while we strive

From day one to countdown zero Signs are in the air
Following the stars in time
We trust that destiny is fair

All's well, we're right on track Although our hearts may fear sometimes Adventure comes our way

Each moment er depart again Stumbling into the unknown
Yet this road is build for us
The future will be shown

Trust and faith and endless deeds Combine us in this space
In our souls we keep our inner seeds
For those we want to face

Courage gives an open mind Then luck will has its chance I spread my senses far beyond Reach out and welcome your glance

Gentle force, come fill my heart Surround me, strengthen me
I see your power, graceful light
My path will end by thee

DAYLIGHT MOON

*music: Hans Elmers

Over the valley and far away
A blue sky, a warm breeze in the air Soft wind caresses wild flower leaves And my heart is open wide

I turn my head to you, my love
Almost shy
I wait and feel
The a kiss seals

Daylight moon, the guardian arose Silvery wonder, keeper of souls
Let us grow slow, like trees in spring
Let us run fast, like horses on wings

I turn my head to you, my love
Almost shy
I wait and feel

ME

*music: Hans Elmers

Out of the sky I fly to you I see you in surprise Teas flow, rejoice for you Untouched and deeply wise Butterfly dances, joy at your face

Whisper me how _ Love tree, love bird
Whisper me why
_ People may hurt

See my sorrow, I come to you _ Flowers and long grass Care for me, ask please heal me _ Arms unite us, don't grieve me Meeting you here is all there is

Whisper me how

Love myself, we're one and two Experience immense
But my life is somewhere else
I'll keep you in my heart Pain for parting, torment to be torn

BROKEN HEART

*music: Hans Elmers
lyrics: Hans Elmers*

Search of a broken heart the journey never ends Find a space, a place in time left there for the lonely

And I stretch my hands out I stretch my hands out to you

A love forever or at first sight a stranger in the night Forever young this restless heart dies an old forgotten one

A struggling and lonely heart captured in my soul There's no place for us my love, my love

This search of a broken heart that cannot be healed forever, forever, forever....
